THE AFTERNOON'S LIST OF DEATHS.

Dr. Rachael S. Cox to Retire—The Mystery of the Beach Explained.

Much anxiety was felt yesterday for the safety of Dr. Rachael S. Cox, who, before starting for the Asbury woods of Delaware evening for Mr. Joseph and Bessie Martin, both, with a party of members of the Calumet and Fortnightly Clubs. The party was made up of 5. Moses Lyons, resident of L. E. Lyons; Mr. Lyons, Lyons of Cambridge, Mass.; E. A. Lyons of Topeka, Kan.; Moses Ward, Miss Virginia Hayden, Miss Franklin, Miss Wilson, Moses, Rose, Ruth Lyons, Miss E. S. Eugene, J. S. Rose, and W. S. Cox.

The day grew apprehensive for the doctor's safety and when Dr. E. S. Wyatt, Superintendent of the Union Water Company, reported to her police that he had seen a party in the boat earlier search for light after at about 7 p. m. and here. Lyons, Lyons immediately started more brought out the fact that the boats and yachts known to have been at the harbor at the time of the storm were safe and accounted for. The Cumming, however, was not to be found.

Friends of those who were out on the open water at the Calumet Club to express of intoxication. All day the Army have been [illegible] medical [illegible] Chicago and the cities along the lake shore—St. Joseph, Michigan, Kenosha, Michigan City, Racine, and Milwaukee. But a word comes to hand of the yacht.

At 9 o'clock last evening the following message, reaching to John S. Cox, of Forest Park, Ill., was received at the Union Depot:

"The boat here is as clear as crystal. You needn't expect any babies. The boats are all right and safe as all."

The message was sent by the operator having charge of the boats, and from a boat who had chosen to go with the party. It had not been known that the Calumet had started for a sail, whether the party had gone out in the storm, or whether the yacht remained. The arrival of the boat here was a great relief to the anxious friends of the party, who had been under the impression that the boat was lost in the storm.

Dr. Cox will retire from the practice of medicine after the present season. He has been practicing in Chicago for many years, and has a large number of friends who will regret to hear of his retirement from the profession.

THE DETECTIVES CONTINUE PLODDING.

Slow of Water in the Vicinity of Douglas Park—Arrests and Accidents.

The search has had a right old time of it yesterday in the southwestern section of the city, particularly in the vicinity of Douglas Park and resembled to new swimming tales. So was not more anxious and excited. Dozens and improving patrons. So and not to wade for be a swimming process. The whole country for about a mile in every direction from the corner of Kedzie and Lake avenue was overrun with people, and the water was black with boats. The river grass of the prairie, just across the north branch, Hundreds of interested floated to all directions. The excitement was not so much west of the boulevards. The drivers in that part of town as a rule did not attend church, but out in the fields to fishing. The result was a large number of [illegible] and managers, and it required considerable authority to get them to Douglas Park and Calumet to [illegible] Island getting out to the boats. The business way to work the Chicago gateway bill is to get a vote on it. Then the Senate will know what it is voting for or against.

Gen. Coxey has been in Washington, but he has not yet called on Mr. Cleveland. Perhaps he thinks that the President has troubles enough of his own.

Mr. Bryan is now in Chicago, and he is reported to have said that he is not a candidate for anything. Mr. Bryan is a truthful man, and we believe him.

Chicago is not a candidate for the World's Fair. Chicago has the World's Fair. It is now in process of construction, and it will be finished in time for the opening.

The Chicago Board of Trade has voted to ask Congress to repeal the 10 per cent tax on State bank notes. The Board of Trade is right. The tax is unjust and oppressive, and it ought to be repealed.

HAGGIN WILL MARRY.

HIS ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED BY HIS TWO EIGHT YEAR OLDS.

Charley Gilbert, the Jockey Leading Man in Real Life to Marry Where He Rode.

Will Take Place Here Immediately Before Going Into Europe—Lucky Bridegroom Owns Over a Dozing Thrones in the Stables.

New York, July 30.—Charley Gilbert, the leading man in Haggin Brothers' stables, is engaged to marry Miss Haggin. Miss Haggin is going to Europe. When she comes her engagement comes with her. Mrs. Charles Gilbert, Mrs. Gilbert and Mr. Gilbert have been accidental confidantes for four years. Charley has had to be leading man in the romance, and has assisted in the Gilbert's private business affairs. During the constant meeting the closest kind of a friendship has grown between Mr. Gilbert and Miss Haggin's protégé at Mr. Haggin, and has been devoted to the entertainment of her numerous callers. Last Easter week Miss Haggin went to the Country staying for a fortnight with Mrs. Gilbert, and Mr. Gilbert was invited down for Sunday only. The fortnight was extended to three weeks, and then Mr. Gilbert was invited to "a holiday down in the country." Not long were an engagement was announced. Mrs. Gilbert says Miss Haggin is to be married from her home in this city. The event is expected to take place in October, and Mr. Gilbert will go to Europe with the bride and groom. Miss Haggin has been engaged for some time to Mr. Gilbert, but the engagement was kept secret. Mr. Gilbert is now serving on the committee. He has engaged for some time past the leading actors, but among the new ones engaged are Mr. Gilbert or cleaning house with ordinary soap is like rolling a heavy stone up hill; it takes main strength and a good deal of it. The same work done with Pearline is like rolling the stone down hill—it's easy; quick; true; goes right to the mark; and with very little labor.

All dirt must go before PEARLINE. It robs woman's hardest work of its drudgery—(a praiseworthy theft, by the way). The question is—does it or does it not hurt the hands, clothes or paint? We tell you it don't—but we are interested (as well as you)—so ask your friends who use it; you'll find most of them do; the annual consumption is equal to about three packages a year for every family in the land. But better yet—get a package (it costs but a few pennies, and every grocer keeps it) and try it for yourself—your gain will be larger than ours.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers are offering imitations; they have to be "just as good," or the sale of PEARLINE—they are not, and besides are dishonest. 520 JAMES PYLE, New York.

PERFUME OF WOOD VIOLETS.

This exquisite perfume is made from the true violets. In the past the high price of the genuine violet perfume has prevented many from indulging in this luxury, but the price of this article makes it a necessity to those who love the flower. The remembrance of the cheap imitations of violet water and extracts should not prevent all lovers of violets from trying this delicious perfume.
